

DEATHS OF THE DAY

John F. Cavanaugh

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21.—John F. Cavanaugh, the widely known sheet writer, who for years had been associated with the Melvin club, died at his home in this city this evening from cancer of the jaw, caused by excessive cigar smoking. The fatal disease made its appearance about two years ago, since which time several operations have been performed.

DrFarrahCancerCenter.com